JAMES B. WEAVER,
Of Iowa.

HON. THOMAS WREN,
OF EUREKA.

HON. M. S. BONNIFIELD,
OF HUMBOLDT.

HON. C. C. POWNING,
OF WASHOE.

ALTERNATE ELECTORS:

HON. Geo. S. Nixon...Of Humboldt
HON. Geo. Brown...Of Storey
HON. W. J. Westerfield...Of Lyon

For United States Senator,
W. M. STEWART, of Ormsby.

For Congressman,
F. G. NEWLANDS, of Washoe.

For Justice of the Supreme Court,
CHAS. H. BELKNAP, of Storey.
For University Regent, long term,
Nat'l H. L. FISH, of Washoe.

For University Regent, short term,
CHAS. E. MACK, of Storey.

A GROWING POWER.

When a Silver party was started by a half a dozen men in Ormsby it was a laughing stock.

But the organizers of the party stuck to their work and began canvassing for names.

It grew from day to day and the sun has never set a single night since the first slimly attended Opera House meeting, that did not see new names added to the list.

When the time came to secure a ticket it was hard to find men who would consent to run. The time soon arrived, however, when candidates realized that there was a good fighting show, and so the ticket was selected by a committee of eighteen earnest citizens, and in the selection the qualifications of each candidate were carefully considered.

The result was that a ticket was placed in the field, not the result of a little back room caucus, but a ticket selected by leading men and taxpayers of Ormsby.

The ticket is composed of independent voters who go into the canvass with no collars on their necks, and are amenable to no one but their constituents after election.

They have not been obliged to hamper themselves with pledges to Tom, Dick and Harry, and will be free men when elected.

The candidates have gone into the field, each earnestly working for his own success and the ticket, and a very careful canvass of the county shows such encouraging results that there is no longer any doubt that a majority of the ticket will be elected next Tuesday. More voters are daily falling into line.

It is no trouble to get followers for a party when its success becomes assured.

If They Only Would.

Copper every statement that Sam Davis makes and you'll be on the safe side.—Tribune.

This is the sort of defense the Tribune is making in reply to the charges made against the county ring by the APPEAL, and it makes the paper a laughing stock as well as the gang it chirps for. If the people could only be persuaded to copper everything the APPEAL says, it would be an easy matter for the little clique that has run the county so long to have a walk over next Tuesday. But the trouble is that the public do not copper these statements but believe them. They believe them because the evidence furnished in support of the charges was taken from the records, records which everybody could inspect. Because a Grand jury while it whitewashed the accused parties, was forced to admit that the charges were true.

But what convinced the public more than anything that the charges were true, was the persistent denial of them in the columns of the Tribune. The fact that the public steadily refuses to "copper" the APPEAL is just where the shoe pinches with the Ormsby ring at present.

If the people of Ormsby will vote the silver ticket they will elect a set of county officers who will not demand commissions and bribes of merchants who desire to do business with the county.
